Sec. 21-18. - No required permits waived.

The business license issued pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter [Santa Ana Municipal Code (SAMC) Chapter 21] constitutes a receipt for the license fee paid and shall have no other legal effect. A business license is a requirement, not a permit, to transact and carry on any business activity within the city. The business license tax receipt is evidence only of the fact that such tax has been paid. Neither the payment of the tax nor the possession of the business tax receipt authorizes, permits or allows the doing of any act which the person paying or holding the same would not otherwise be entitled to do; and any permit, license, variance or other instrument of approval or evidence that any conditions exist as required by any other Section of this Code [SAMC] or by any statute or code provisions of the state must first be obtained or complied with before the doing of any act or thing for which it is required. (Ord. No. NS-1922, § 1, 7-20-87)

BUSINESS LICENSE TAX RECEIPT*(POSTING REQUIREMENTS)

- Sec. 21-70. - Posting; public display; keeping on person.

(1) Any licensee transacting and carrying on business at a fixed place of business in the city which is open to the public shall keep the license prominently posted in a conspicuous and public place upon the premises where such business is carried on. Provided further that any licensee transacting and carrying on business at a fixed place of business in the city which is closed to the public shall nevertheless keep the license posted in a conspicuous and accessible place upon the premises where such business is carried on.

(2) Any licensee transacting and carrying on business at a fixed place of business in the city without an agent or employee on the premises shall post in a conspicuous place the name, address and telephone number of the person or persons to be contacted to verify the possession of a proper and valid license.

(3) Any licensee transacting and carrying on business but not operating at a fixed place of business in the city shall keep the license within his or her possession at all times while transacting and carrying on such business.

(4) Whenever the city shall provide a special tag or plate for the identification of a vehicle for which a business license tax has been paid, such tag or plate shall be affixed to the vehicle in accordance with the pertinent regulations of the collector.

(5) Whenever the city shall provide a special decal, metal-cal or label for the identification of a coin-operated machine or device for which a business license tax has been paid, such decal, metal-cal or label shall be affixed to the machine or device in accordance with the pertinent regulations of the collector.

(6) Any person having a license under the provisions of this Chapter shall produce and exhibit same whenever required to do so by any revenue officer or police officer, or by any other officer or official or employee authorized to inspect licenses or by any person being solicited.

(7) No person shall exhibit a revoked business license.

(8) No person shall reproduce, duplicate, copy or alter an original business license for the purpose of circumventing the requirement of this section by giving a false or misleading impression that any duplication of an original city business license is valid and that the appropriate fee therefor has been paid. (Ord. No. NS-1922, § 1, 7-20-87)

Note: Business License Tax Receipts issued for the rental of residential or commercial real estate for locations within the City, at which no representative, employee, or owner is present, shall not be required to be posted. The Business License Tax Receipt shall be kept within the possession of the landlord or other responsible party and shall be made available upon request by any City official or authorized officer.
