All rewards are cumulative except for Achievement Bars. *Mandatory for Girl Scouts to have an adult chaperone for all experiences except Dave & Busters. Must attend experience to receive item. Tickets/gift cards will not be offered in exchange for experiences.

Pennsylvania with the CEO - 5,000+ Packages

Top sellers and their adult chaperone will enjoy an exclusive trip with GSOC's CEO. Girl-led trip may include:

- Visits to the Liberty Bell and Independence Hall at Philadelphia's National Historic Independence Park.
- A stop in Amish Country to learn about the Pennsylvania Amish way of life.
- A sweet experience for your senses in Hershey, PA, home of Hershey's Chocolate World.

2024 Cookie Program: Girl Rewards Opt-out Option for Older Girls

To qualify:

- Must be Cadettes, Seniors, and/or Ambassadors.
For multi-level troops, the majority of the troop must be comprised of Cadettes, Seniors, and/or Ambassadors to qualify.
- Troop per girl average sold of 250 packages for the 2024 Cookie Program.
- Must have a girl-led discussion and the entire troop must agree to opt out.
- All girls sign agreement acknowledging decision to opt out of traditional rewards.
- Troop completes online submission form attaching the girl signed agreement by deadline of January 13th 2024 at 11:59 PM.

30+ Packages

250+ Packages

Girls in troops that have opted out of rewards will still be eligible to receive all patches (theme, goal getter, achievement bar), the All-Star Ceremony, and Pennsylvania with the CEO experience if earned. Troop will still also be eligible to receive the Initial Order Bonus if earned.

Troop funds belong to the troop, not to an individual Girl Scout. the opt-out program is only available to troops for additional troop proceeds and is not available for Juliettes.
