Where Cookie Money Goes

When your Girl Scout participates in the Cookie Program, she's powering new, unique, and amazing experiences that will broaden her world, help her learn essential life skills and prepare her to practice a lifetime of leadership. 100 percent of the net proceeds stays in Orange County to benefit local Girl Scouts! Below is the breakdown of where the cookie money will go in 2025:

$3.17
Our Council
(Girl Scout Program, Volunteer Training, Camp Scherman, Facilities & financial assistance)

80¢—$1.05
Troop proceeds
(service projects, camping, activities, travel & more)

21¢
Girl rewards
(patches, prizes, Cookie Dough & experiences)

$1.59—$2.88
Cost of cookies
(Cookies, Kickoff event, Service Unit Bonus, & program materials)

When a girl participates in the Cookie Program, she's not only benefitting herself and her troop, she's providing enriching experiences for all of her Girl Scout sisters. Girls who sell cookies make it possible for Girl Scouts of Orange County to support and expand girl programs, volunteer training and facilities, and financial assistance that keeps Girl Scouting available and affordable for all.
